Candlelight Vigil

The Upper Dublin community came together last night to support tolerance and brotherhood. In a heart felt vigil friends and families of Upper Dublin joined together to express the true values of our community.